- 2.2 Termination for Breach. A Party may terminate the Agreement and/or a SOW immediately if the other Party materially breaches the Agreement, or a SOW, and fails to remedy the breach within thirty (30) days or such other reasonable time frame as the parties may mutually agree after receiving written notice of the breach from the other Party. - 3.2 Taxes. In addition, Customer shall pay or reimburse Provider for any tax, tariff, customs duty, surcharge, or other fee imposed by law or regulation from time to time due to the performance of the Services, and which Provider is required to pay to any taxing or other regulatory or municipal authority(excluding income taxes based on Provider's income) (collectively "Taxes") unless Customer provides a valid exemption certificate. Customer shall indemnify Provider for all Taxes which may be levied upon Provider as a result of Customer's failure to promptly provide a valid exception certificate.

3.3 Idle Time. Should Provider Personnel assigned to perform the applicable Services or Deliverables incur idle time as a result of the fault of Customer, or other third party under the direction of Customer, (e.g. not having resources available as outlined in the applicable SOW), Provider will charge by the hour for that idle time. Unless a specific rate is set forth for idle time in the applicable SOW, all idle time will be charged at the regular hourly rate set forth in the SOW for a maximum of eight hours per occurrence. If Provider Personnel incur eight (8) hours of idle time each day for three (3) consecutive business days, Provider Personnel will exit the Site and not return until the project has been rescheduled, and Customer will also be responsible for all direct travel and per diem expenses incurred as a result.

All prices are based on U.S. dollars and all payments will be made in the United States in U.S. dollars unless otherwise specifically agreed to in writing by both parties. Provider may invoice for Products (if any) as they are delivered during the development or implementation process. Unless otherwise specified in the SOW, payment, whether for Services, Deliverables or Products or any reimbursement, which Customer is required to make under this Agreement must be made within thirty (30) days after Customer has received Provider's invoice. Past due balances will accrue interest per month at 1.5% or at the maximum applicable statutory rate, whichever is lower. If Customer disputes the accuracy of an invoice (a "Billing Dispute"), Customer will notify Provider in writing no later than thirty (30) days following the date of such invoice of the nature of the Billing Dispute. Customer may withhold the amount disputed, however, all undisputed amounts must be paid when due. An invoice will be deemed to have been accepted if Customer does not present a Billing Dispute on or before the date when the payment is due. The Parties will make commercially reasonable efforts to resolve the Billing Dispute within a reasonable amount of time. In the event Customer fails to pay any undisputed invoices when due, Provider may, upon notice to Customer, adjust pay terms, limit or specify payment methods, and/or suspend performance under this Agreement, any SOW or PO without liability. Parts 730-774 (the "EAR"), and the OFAC Economic Sanctions Regulations, 31 C.F.R. Parts 500 et seq. ("OFAC Economic Sanctions Regulations") govern the sale, export, or other disposition of Products. Each Party agrees to adhere to all provisions of the EAR and the OFAC Economic Sanctions Regulations, and the terms, conditions, required procedures, and documentation of any export licenses or other approvals issued for such Products. Neither Party will participate in the sale, resale, supply, export, reexport, or transfer by any means of any Product acquired from or supplied by Provider, or any technology installed onto those Products, to any destination, end-user, or end-use prohibited or restricted under the export control or economic sanctions laws and regulations of the United States.

4.2 Acceptance of Product. All Products delivered hereunder shall be deemed accepted by Customer upon delivery (including electronic delivery or availability for download in the case of software), and Customer shall have no right to revoke acceptance, unless such right is specifically set forth in a SOW.

4.3 Product Returns. Subject to applicable Manufacturer terms and conditions Customer may return any Product that, upon delivery, is: (i) damaged; (ii) defective (breach of warranty), or (ii) errant. Software may not be returned. Subject to terms of the Manufacturer or distributor, Provider may impose a restocking fee at its discretion. Refunds will not be given but credits will be applied. All returns require a Return Merchandise Authorization ("RMA") to be filled out and returned by the Customer with five (5) days of receipt of the Product. The RMA is available upon request.

4.4 Maintenance Services for Products. Maintenance services may be available from the Manufacturer or Provider. Where Customer purchases such maintenance services from Manufacturer through Provider, Provider shall pass through the maintenance agreement directly to Customer, and all terms and conditions of the Manufacturer's maintenance agreement shall apply. Provider shall not be liable for any deficiencies, breach or other issues with the Manufacturer's maintenance services, and Customer shall look solely to the Manufacturer or Manufacturer's maintenance service provider with respect thereto.

4.5 Purchase Orders. Customer may submit purchase orders to Provider regarding Products that Customer intends to purchase from Provider, each purchase order represents a separate order by Customer and is subject to the terms and conditions as set forth herein. Any terms and conditions contained in Customer's Purchase Order, whether or not such terms are acknowledged by Provider will be null and void.

4.6 Product Held at a Provider Warehouse. Customer acknowledges that Provider is not a warehouseman and in the event Product is housed at a Provider warehouse, Customer may be liable to Provider for warehousing fees in an amount specified in the SOW, until such time as Customer takes delivery. Provider is not obligated to house Customer Products and reserves the right to ship any Products held by Provider to the Customer ship-to address on file.

4.7 Product Warranties. To the extent that Provider sells Products to Customer hereunder, all warranties are provided by the Manufacturer of the Products. Provider will, on request, supply to Customer (insofar as possible) details of the terms and conditions of any such warranty and Customer shall be responsible for instructing itself on the terms of the same and ensuring full compliance with the Manufacturer's terms. Upon request, Provider shall provide reasonable assistance to Customer for registering Products for applicable warranties. While Provider tries to ensure the accuracy and completeness of the Products, Provider is not responsible for Manufacturer's errors.

4.8 Product Leasing. In the event Customer elects to procure Products through leasing, Provider reserves the right to assign Provider's rights in any such Products upon notice to, and not the consent of, Customer. Customer shall cooperate with Provider in the event Provider wishes to assign its rights in such Products, and will execute any and all reasonable and industry standard documentation associated with such assignment. So long as title in the Products remain with Provider, in the event of any uncured default of this Agreement by Customer, Provider shall have the right to: 1) immediately re-take possession of all or any of the Products upon notice, and Customer hereby authorizes Provider for that purpose to go upon any premises (or authorize others to do so) on which the Product is located; and/or 2) require Customer, at its expense, to deliver all or any of the Products to Provider within a reasonable time period specified by Provider.

5. DELIVERABLES

5.1 Acceptance Testing. Deliverables are subject to an Acceptance Testing Period of ten (10) business days unless otherwise specified in the SOW. The Acceptance Testing Period will begin the first business day following the day on which Provider first offers the applicable Deliverable to Customer for acceptance. During the Acceptance Testing Period, Customer should complete any testing as Customer desires to otherwise determine the functionality, performance and conformance of the Deliverable to the specifications contained in the SOW. In the event of any dispute between Customer and Provider, the failure of Customer to perform such tests shall preclude Customer from raising issues of functionality, performance and nonconformance to the specifications established in the SOW. Should customer discover any non-conformance of the Deliverables, Customer shall give Provider a written letter specifying the nonconformance with particularity (the "Deficiencies"). Such letter shall specify the particular criteria or requirement(s) detailed in the SOW, with which the Deliverable does not comply. In the event of any alleged Deficiencies, Provider shall proceed in a commercially reasonable manner to correct at its own expense such Deficiencies, if they so exist. After the Deficiencies have been corrected by Provider, Customer may again run such acceptance tests as it desires and thereupon deliver to Provider a list of any additional Deficiencies within ten (10) business days of such subsequent notice. If Customer (a) begins use of the Deliverable in a production environment before acceptance, or (b) fails to timely notify Provider of its acceptance or non-acceptance of the Deliverable in accordance with this Section, Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the Deliverable and shall have no further recourse against Provider.

5.2 Defect Maintenance. If set forth in a SOW, Provider will provide Defect Maintenance for Deliverables for thirty (30) days from the date of final acceptance of the Deliverables at no additional cost to Customer. Thereafter, Provider may provide Support for the Deliverables for an additional fee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Support (whether during the initial thirty (30) day period or thereafter) that is necessitated by any change, modification, editing or repairs made on the Deliverables by Customer or any third party, shall be at an additional cost to Customer.

6. CHANGE CONTROL

6.1 Change Requests. If Customer desires to make any changes to an executed SOW, Customer shall provide Provider with a written document specifying the requested changes in the requirements (the "Change Request"). Customer acknowledges that any changes to a SOW may require increased work by Provider necessitating a reasonable adjustment in the fees due Provider. Customer agrees to negotiate such increases in good faith and to accept any delays the Deliverables and/or Services caused by such negotiations. Acceptance of the proposed Change Request shall be at Provider's sole discretion. If Provider accepts the proposed Change Request and Customer accepts any associated adjustments in schedule and fees payable, the parties shall execute the proposed Change Request, which shall detail the change in the Deliverables or Workforce Services and other related adjustments. After both parties execute the Change Request the terms of the Change Request shall prevail over the SOW to which the change applies, to the extent they are inconsistent. If Provider does not accept the proposed Change Request and/or Customer does not accept the related adjustments to the schedule and/or fees, the proposed Change Request shall be null and void and the applicable SOW shall continue to govern without change. If the Customer requests changes while work is in process under a SOW and the changes do not warrant the effort of the use of the change control process described in this Section then Provider will, upon Customer's written approval, charge for the work on a time and materials basis at Provider's hourly rate set forth in the applicable SOW.

6.2 Time and Materials. In the case of time and materials work, the following definitions are used to apply normal time and overtime rates. Normal business hours are defined as eight hours performed within a single twenty-four (24) hour period beginning at 7:00AM and concluding at 6:00PM Monday through Friday excluding holidays as defined by United States Code Title 5 Section 6103(a). Hours worked beyond eight (8) hours in a single weekday or hours worked on weekends or holidays are considered overtime hours.

7. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

7.1 Background Intellectual Property. Nothing in this Agreement is to be construed as giving Customer any right, title, or interest, express or implied, in or to any intellectual property of Manufacturer, Provider, or its subcontractor(s), if any, existing prior to the Effective Date or created independent of the Deliverables under this Agreement ("Background Intellectual Property"). Customer understands and acknowledges that the Background Intellectual Property contains the valuable trade secrets of Manufacturer, Provider or its subcontractors, as applicable, and constitutes Provider's Confidential Information. Customer shall not attempt to modify, reverse engineer or decompile the Background Intellectual Property or Products supplied by Provider. Customer shall not separately use or exploit any Background Intellectual Property even if such Background Intellectual Property is incorporated in or otherwise utilized as a part of Deliverables or Customer Owned Deliverables.

7.2 Right to Deliverables and Customer Owned Deliverables. Upon payment in full of all fees due to Provider, Customer will have a non-exclusive, non-transferable, object code only, perpetual license to use the Deliverables, including any Background Intellectual Property incorporated therein, solely for Customer's internal use, and subject to and consistent with the SOW pursuant to which the Deliverable was created. Except in the case of Customer Owned Deliverables, Provider reserves all right, title and interest in and to the Deliverables, and shall retain ownership of all intellectual property embodied in the Deliverables.

7.3 Intellectual Property and Licensing of Deliverables. Certain Deliverables may be expressly designated in a SOW as "Customer Owned Deliverables." In such case, upon payment in full of all relevant SOW fees, Provider will assign to Customer all right, title, and interest to Customer in the Customer Owned Deliverables, with the exception of any Background Intellectual Property that may be incorporated therein. Upon Customer's request and at Customer's expense, Provider will execute such documents as may be necessary to perfect Customer's rights in the Customer Owned Deliverables. In addition, Customer hereby grants Provider a non-exclusive, royalty-free, perpetual, world-wide license to use the Customer Owned Deliverables in connection with Provider's business, including, but not limited to, the provision of services, deliverables and products to its customers. Except with regard to Customer Owned Deliverables, if any, this is not a work made-for-hire agreement, as that term is defined in Section 101 of Title 17 of the United States Code.

7.4 Intellectual Property and Licensing of Products. Nothing in this Agreement will be construed as transferring any rights, title, or interest, whether express or implied, in the intellectual property of any Product. Customer interest, right or title, if any, to the intellectual property any Product shall be expressly stated in the SOW pursuant to which the Product was purchased, or a SE License Agreement where applicable. In addition, Provider does not grant any third-party licenses to Customer for any Products purchased from Provider except as may be granted in a SE License Agreement. Provider however shall assist Customer in obtaining a license to use the Products from the applicable Manufacturer, subject to such Manufacturer's terms and conditions and at Customer's sole expense.

Subject to the foregoing nondisclosure and non-use obligations, the receiving Party agrees to use at least the same care and precaution in protecting such Confidential Information as the receiving Party uses to protect the receiving Party's own Confidential Information and trade secrets, and in no event less than reasonable care. Each Party acknowledges that due to the unique nature of the other Party's Confidential Information, the disclosing Party will not have an adequate remedy in money or damages in the event of any unauthorized use or disclosure of its Confidential Information. In addition to any other remedies that may be available in law, in equity or otherwise, the disclosing Party shall be entitled to injunctive relief to prevent such unauthorized use or disclosure.

9. LIMITED WARRANTIES
