

Anti-Bribery and Corruption: Whistle Blowing Process

The Computacenter Anti-bribery and Corruption Policy (the “AB&C Policy”) details how allegations of suspected or actual bribery should be raised, investigated and reported.

If you are concerned that an act of bribery or any other wrongdoing is being considered or carried out you can report this to our independent confidential hotline, supplied by Safecall.

Safecall provide an independent, confidential reporting line where you can raise your concerns and be assured they will be fully addressed. Calls are handled by skilled staff and will be treated in complete confidence. A report of the call will be sent to the Head of Group Legal or Group HR Director. Safecall will not disclose your name to us if you wish to remain anonymous.

You can contact Safecall 24hours a day, seven days a week. The number to call if you are ringing from the UK is 0800 9151571.

The number to call is dependent on the country you are calling from. A list of the numbers for our main countries of operations is at the end of this procedure.

Alternatively Safecall can be contacted by email on computacenter@safecall.co.uk or via the web at www.safecall.co.uk/report.

The Company makes provision to ensure that any staff member who makes a notification in good faith through this process will not suffer any detriment as a result of reporting their concerns.

The Company will support employees and any third parties who refuse to pay or accept bribes, and they will not be subject to retaliation, or other adverse consequences, even where such refusal results in a loss of business for the Company. Retaliation against any individual for raising a legitimate concern regarding bribery or fraud will not be tolerated by Computacenter. Such retaliation may constitute gross misconduct under Computacenter’s Disciplinary Policy and Procedure and result in dismissal.
